

Black Religion in America

A Webinar Series (This year's Limpitlaw Lecture)
Sponsored by the Department of Religious Studies &
the Greenberg Center for the Study of Religion in Public Life
All hour-long sessions occur on successive Thursdays, 5 pm EST

March 18, 5 pm EST – Professor Biko Mandela Gray (Syracuse University): “On Evil: Toni Morrison, Theodicy, and the Problem of Evil in the United States”

March 25, 5 pm EST – Professor Cori Tucker-Price (Dartmouth College): “In the Land of Milk and Honey: Westward Migration and the Black Religious Imagination”

April 1, 5 pm EST – Janan Graham-Russell (PhD student, Harvard University): “Churched Bodies: Embodied Practice and the Materiality of Blackness in Mormonism”

April 8, 5 pm EST – Professor Jessica Davenport (Rice University): “Black Religion on View: Exploring the Nature of Black Religion through Black Contemporary Art”

April 15, 5 pm EST – Professor Anthony Pinn (Rice University): “Du Bois’s Dilemma: Black Moralism and Life at the End of Hope”

Ctrl-click below to Register for the any session or the entire Webinar series
https://trincoll.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_ham77i6ARvq4LwyH7_14aQ